Tom Crowley of Dougherty Funding LLC Inducted into 2013 Minnesota Real Estate Hall of Fame

MINNEAPOLIS, MN (November 6, 2013): Tom Crowley, Senior Vice President in Dougherty Funding's Minneapolis office was recently inducted into the University of St. Thomas Real Estate Hall of Fame. Crowley has directed countless financing projects in the real estate community. A graduate of St. Benedict's College in Kansas, Crowley has more than 43 years' experience in the mortgage banking industry. His portfolio of work is expansive, including regional and national recognition with the financing of specific projects such as Mall of America, North Park Regional Mall of Dallas, five Ritz Carlton Hotels, IDS Center, City Center of Minneapolis, Republic Plaza of Denver and Citicorp Plaza Los Angeles, among other properties.

The Shenehon Center for Real Estate at the University of St. Thomas Opus College of Business has established the Minnesota Real Estate Hall of Fame to honor, preserve and perpetuate the names and outstanding accomplishments of real estate leaders who have made a significant contribution in real estate and demonstrated care and concern for improving their communities as business leaders.

Since 1996, Dougherty Funding LLC has offered a broad range of commercial finance solutions to real estate developers and corporations nationwide, providing traditional mortgage banking services via timely transaction execution, value-added deal structuring and efficient and accurate loan processing. Dougherty Funding serves as the lead lender in all of their transactions and funds each financing by selling loan participations to an extensive network of banks and institutional lenders throughout the U.S.
